CANCELLATION & REFUND POLICY

---

We understand that sometimes plans change unexpectedly. Here's a summary of our cancellation policy:

- Changes to Traveler Numbers (Partial Cancellation):

If one person drops out of a group, there are no direct cancellation charges for that individual. However, the per-person cost for the remaining travelers will increase as fixed costs are now divided among fewer participants.

- Cancellations More Than 90 Days Before Tour Start:

If you cancel your safari more than 90 days before the scheduled start date, we will refund 30% of your advance payment (minus bank fees). This allows us to cover administrative costs and initial lodge reservation fees.

- Cancellations Between 46 and 90 Days Before Tour Start:

For cancellations made between 46 and 90 days before the tour starts, refund of the 10% advance payment will be issued. At this point, significant commitments have been made to lodges and will have applied for park permits.

- Cancellations Within 45 Days of Tour Start:

If you cancel your safari within 45 days of the scheduled start date, no refund will be provided for the total tour amount (Incase already paid). This is due to the strict non-refundable policies of lodges and park permits at this late stage. We strongly recommend travel insurance to cover such eventualities.

- Postponement Option:

Instead of canceling entirely, you may have the option to postpone your safari to a future date. This can help you avoid cancellation fees from lodges and ensure your investment isn't lost. This option is subject to availability and any potential price differences for the new dates. Terms and Conditions apply.

- Emergency Lockdowns (Government-Mandated):

In the rare event of a government-mandated emergency lockdown that prevents travel (declared up to 96 hours before your tour start date), we will issue a Credit Note for the amount paid. This Credit Note can be used to re-book your safari at a later, safer date. Issuance of a Credit Note is at the discretion of Trip Quest Safaris and the lodges involved, and Terms and Conditions will apply.
